Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Like many other americans, I have always felt that Pres. Kennedy's assasination was a conspiracy.

Pres. Kennedy stopped in Miami on his way to Texas. I do believe that he was almost shot in Miami instead of Texas. I do believe there was a man in that crowd that day who had a gun.

I was with a friend and I told her - "Let's get out of here - I feel like the president is going to be assasinated."

I can identify the man I will never forget him.

When Pres. Kennedy was killed in Texas a couple of days later, it didn't come as a surprise. He was being followed when he was in Miami.

I've never told anyone what I saw there that day for fear that someone would think that I'm a little nutty.

I feel that I can be of some help to you. I can identify the man who almost killed him in Miami.

I hope that you will keep this information confidential.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Phyllis Needleman
